

STUDENTS TO ELECT SIX ASB OFFICERS

ASB PRESIDENT CANDIDATES

BILL MOLMEN

Hartnell College has long been a leader in forceful student government. I would do my best to see that our college continues to grow and to supply more and more student activities. I intend to involve the student body in more activities than ever before. At present the students do not realize all the opportunities that they have to continue to gain experience in many phases of student activities. I would try to involve the students more fully in our school. My experience as an AFS Student to Turkey gave me an ability to work for and with people. As Vice President of choir and President of Music Club this year I have become familiar with the problems of our Student Government and I feel I am ready to cope with them.

DAVID (JACK) HAYES

In response to Hartnell's summons for student leadership for the coming school year '65-'66 I have entered upon a campaign as candidate for the office of A.S.B. president. Now as your A.S.B. president I'd do my darndest to live up to the traditionally high standards of leadership set by my predecessors, to support and carry on timely programs initiated by them, and to work diligently ever in the best interests of the college and student body toward enhancing the college's atmosphere with an even greater "Hartnell" spirit. Please consider my qualifications for this position: The privilege to serve as a member of the A.S.B. commission has afforded me the opportunity to become familiar with the functions of student government and with the needs of students. I am an honor student. Past military leadership experience has instilled in me the sense of maturity and decisiveness essential in fulfilling the duties and responsibilities of the office of A.S.B. president.

GORDON SILVER

I am seeking the post of Sophomore Class Representative because I think it will give me an opportunity to serve my school, and this is an opportunity I wish very much to have. I have made myself fully aware of the duties and the responsibilities of this office and will try to fulfill them to the best of my abilities. As for qualifications, in high school I was Junior Class president and in my senior year I was Student Body President. This year I was the ICC Representative for the Freshman Class. I believe that I have the qualifications for this office and the desire to serve my class and my school well. I hope you believe I have them, too.

Commissioner of Rallies and Assemblies

VICKI SCHUTTER

Teachers and Students of Hartnell College:

First of all, I'd like to introduce myself to those of you who do not know me. I'm Vicki Schutter and I'm running for Commissioner of Rallies and Activities.

I took over this office at the beginning of this semester, and would like to continue it next year. An increase in school spirit, and school participation is greatly needed, and if elected, I'll do my very best to represent you, to the best of my ability.

MARY BARDEN

I am seeking this office because I want to be part of the representation for the Sophomore Class next year. I assumed the office of Freshman Class President this semester when our President resigned, and now that I have become interested in Commission activities here at Hartnell, I want to continue to be a part of Student Government next year. I was an officer each year at Salinas High School — Sophomore Class Treasurer, Junior Class Treasurer, and Senior Class Vice President—and therefore I feel qualified for the position. I will represent the class in Commission as I have done this semester if I am elected for another year.

Spring is here again and so is election time at Hartnell. Members of the Associated Student Body will go to the polls March 29 and 30 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. to vote for candidates of their choice. All it takes to vote is a few minutes time, an interest in Hartnell, and a Student Body Card.

Students will be given a chance to see and hear their candidates at an assembly today at 11:40 a.m. in the Men's Gym. Speeches by the candidates will be the main feature of the assembly, followed by entertainment. The Studio Band and dancers from Mrs. Middaugh's class will perform.

Officers' Duties

Those attending the assembly will hear candidates for the following offices:

A.S.B. President — coordinates and organizes all Associated Student Body activities and represents Hartnell as its Student Body President.

A.S.B. Secretary — acts as both corresponding and recording secretary.

Commissioner of Rallies and Assemblies — plans, schedules, and supervises all rallies and assemblies; serves as chairman of the rally committee.

Commissioner of Cultural Activities — serves as chairman of the cultural activities committee and is responsible for all cultural activities sponsored by A.S.B.

Student Conferences

The Student Body Government has been busy recently representing Hartnell at the Area Six Conference hosted by Cabrillo College Saturday, March 20. A delegation of 19 attended from Hartnell including Dean of Women Miss Handley.

Newly elected officers will also have a chance to attend these conferences each year. Palm Springs is the location for the next conference to be held April 22, 23 and 24. Representatives to the conference will fly from San Francisco to Palm Springs by chartered Western Airlines.

CHACE ANDERSON, JR.

MERLE PEARSON

In Memoriam

Our school and our campus life was considerably saddened that Monday, March 15, when the student body learned at the same time of the deaths of a student, Merle Pearson, and an instructor, Chace Anderson, Jr.

The passing of Merle was particularly unexpected to his friends and acquaintances because of the details of his illness—meningitis—and the suddenness with which it struck. Merle attended school Thursday; funeral services were held for him Monday.

And with Mr. Anderson, the unexpectedness was there again, even though the school knew of his previous heart attack and his current convalescence. A large part of the student body and faculty paid final tribute to the former line coach and P.E. instructor at services the following Wednesday.

These sudden losses coming together have impressed upon us more forcefully the evanescent quality of life on this earth. Perhaps the losses will make us cherish more warmly the friends around us.

Rocinante's Ramblings

By Marie Tschumperlin

The Chicago Tribune terms "Travels With Charley" a book of "trenchant observations about life, glowing descriptions of nature, wonderful revealing scraps of conversation, penetrating insight into American mores, searching thought on loneliness, all recorded by a master of the writing craft." "Travels" is a stimulating, exciting book aglow with the humor, mores, people, towns and cities that make up America. It is a revealing work of John Steinbeck and his traveling companion, Charley, a bleu-coated French poodle. Together they set out from Sag Harbor, Rhode Island, in a three quarter ton pickup equipped with customized camper. His wife, his friends, and neighbors tried to stop him . . . but Steinbeck, sixty years old and possessed of "the virus of restlessness of a practical bum," sets his course for forty states . . . from Long Island to Maine, through the Middle West to Chicago, onward by way of Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana and Idaho to Seattle, south to San Francisco and his birthplace, Salinas, eastward to New Mexico, Arizona and Texas, on to New Orleans, Alabama, Virginia, Pennsylvania and finally to New Jersey and New York.

His interpretations are unique, his response to modern America likened to that of a kid getting a first hand look at the land and people he's read about.

"Travels" is one of his greatest and most unique books because it reveals the weathered personality of a travelled and learned man, and his profound insight into human relations.

DRAMA PROF SETS STAGE

Mr. Hal Ulrici, Hartnell drama coach and instructor is scheduled to speak on "The World's a Stage" Wednesday, March 31 at 8 p.m. in Hartnell's Little Theatre.

Mr. Ulrici's purpose or object of his "informal discussion" is to present the practical point of view of the theatre. He plans to "take the audience backstage" to teach them theatre techniques so they can better understand productions.

Several short dramatic performances by various actors are scheduled for the workshop part of the lecture, and Mr. Ulrici plans to do three scenes from "Merry Wives of Windsor," a Shakespearean production now being produced by the Community Theatre.

The last Hartnell Staff Lecture was presented by Mr. Dennis Nelson who spoke on the topic of "Electronics for Home and Industry."

Casting Date For "Farewell"

A warm-hearted, zany comedy, "Farewell, Farewell Eugene," written by John Vari and Rodney Ackland in 1960, will be the next production of the Hartnell College Community Playhouse.

Director Hal Ulrici has selected April 1 as the casting date. Six women and three men will play the roles which center around the leads of the play—two captivating, eccentric spinster sisters, whose brother Eugene has long since vanished into Africa in search of diamonds.

Mad meanderings and misfortunes of the irrepressible Povia sisters, Gert and Minnie, lend the play a comic potential that sets no limits in audience appeal.

Margaret Rutherford, famous British comedienne, starred in "Farewell, Farewell Eugene" when it was presented in London and New York.

Performances of the new play are scheduled the weekends of April 21, 22 and 28, 29 in the Hartnell Little Theatre.

LAW BREAKER?

The Judicial Council of Hartnell College wishes to inform those students who do not have the auto registration displayed in their car that this is in direct violation of the law. A summary of the Vehicle Code of California states that "the law requires that the registration card be displayed in or on the vehicle where it may be read when the car is unoccupied (the steering post is the usual place for such display)."

Having the registration in the glove compartment or in the operator's wallet is NOT lawful and is in direct violation. If the card is on the steering post and if it is turned in such a way that it cannot be read from without the auto, the law is being violated. Recent municipal court action has been the assessment of monetary fines which are determined by the judge; repeat offenders have been dealt with more severely.

COMMISSIONER OF CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

OSMAN S. LOCKLEAR III

My main reason for running for the office of Commissioner of Cultural Activities is that of seeking out, and presenting to the student body of Hartnell the many aspects of our culture which they pay little attention to, or are not informed of. I have been a participant of many socio-cultural activities such as school operettas, concerts, and folk fests. I am now a member of the Hartnell College Choir, the Chamber Singers, and am also one of the group of students representing Hartnell in the Music Educators National Conference, Western Division, Honor Choir, which is performing in Long Beach this spring. I shall put forth every ounce of my effort in the enactment of my duties, and want the cooperation and support of the entire student body, faculty included. Thank you.

A.S.B. SECRETARY

KAY KOCH

I am running for the office of A.S.B. Secretary because I enjoy student government. Since those good old elementary school days, I have participated in student government almost every year, holding the office of secretary in several organizations during my high school and college years. As A.S.B. Secretary, I would enjoy working with the other officers and will, if elected, do my best to serve the students of Hartnell.

■ Three entrants in the Fuzzerino contest check on their competition to see who's got the head start. Dave Patton, with ruler, wants to take the civilized approach, but Buz Greenberg, with knife in hand, has decided on more drastic action to cut down his rivals. Winners will be decided at big dance April 3; prizes are promised in several categories.

Spring Sign: Fuzz Sprouts Again

In the last few days, bushes and hedges of all sizes, shapes, and description have been springing up on the Hartnell landscape.

No, it's not a new gardening experiment, but the annual A.M.S. beard contest, known as the Fuzzerino.

This year's 25 entrants will have their facial finery judged at the Senior Invitational Dance on April 1.

Prizes will be awarded for the hairiest, most original, and the craziest beard.

It is planned to have some prominent campus women for judges, and contestants must be present to win.

SOCIAL WHIRL AT HARTNELL

Social activities have enjoyed a bustling year and the outlook is even better for the rest of this semester.

Noon dances will continue at 15 cents a person. Any band playing at these affairs will be guaranteed a $25.00 minimum.

Also on the social calendar for Hartnell Week is the Annual Senior Invitational Dance which will be held April 3. Winners of the current beard contest will be announced at this time. This promises to be one of the best dances of the year because of one unique feature—a "Battle of the Bands." Galaxies, Midnighters, Deceptors, Watusis, Du-sonics, and Penetrators have been invited to participate.

Biggest social event of the year is coming up at the end of May. Plans for the Spring Prom are well on their way. The date has been set as May 22 and the place as the San Carlos Hotel's Pacific Room. Music will be provided by the nine-member band of Neil Armstrong. Bids, $5.00 to student body card holders, will go on sale shortly.

Grandma Sweetly

Dear Grandma Sweetly:

I am worried about my son. He is a business executive, good looking, and very wealthy. He is very intelligent, except for one thing, he is very naive about women.

My boy is very warm hearted, and I am afraid that some gold-digging woman will grab him for his money. What can I do, Grandma, to help my sonny find true love?

WORRIED MOTHER.

Dear Mom.

I will advise your little boy personally. Have him write, Goldy Sweetly, Box 96, Salinas.

Dear Grandma Sweetly,

I have been told that I have a pretty face, and a pleasant personality. I am sure that I would be very popular with the boys except for one thing, my figure.

There isn't anything really wrong with it, it's more the lack of it that bothers me.

I'm so tired of being called "skinny," and "beanpole." What can I do to help?

28-24-29

Dear Skinny Beanpole,

You might apply for a Care Package.

Dear Grandma Sweetly,

You nasty old lady! Who do you think you are, giving such bad advice to the poor people who write you?

I'll bet you can't run your own life, so who are you to tell other people what to do?

Why don't you go back to writing on bathroom walls?

I know you won't print this, but I just had to get it off my chest.

SICK OF YOU.

Dear Sick,

What chest, Ann Landers?

Do you have problems, either romantic or personal? Do you need some good sound advice. Grandma Sweetly has the answers. Bring your letters to the Sentinel office, Room 9.

VAMPIRES - FACT OR FICTION?

By Sue Sanders

That vampires exist and have roamed the earth for centuries seems hard to deny in the face of a thousand years of countless records and reports. Ever since ancient times man has seen proof of these creatures on the prowl and has attempted to take physical and religious precautions to protect himself from their bloody forages.

In Africa the Zulus, Bantu, and Caffres believed so strongly that the living-dead left the grave, attracted by the smell of fresh blood, that they would not allow even a drop of blood from a bloody nose to lie on the ground uncovered lest it draw the undead to the source. The blood had to be covered with dirt, completely hidden.

Missing Blood

and burn them carefully, not for sanitary reasons, but for fear that a vampire might be attracted by the blood.

A story is told of two natives, one by the name of Al-tru who was wounded in a fight with an evil man, Ir-ma, whom he finally killed. Both men were soaked in each other's blood. The dead man was buried and the sick man recovered. Months later Al-tru was injured while hunting with some friends. They tried to patch his wounds and because they could do no more, went for help. When they returned, they found Al-tru dead, a look of sheer terror on his face and his body shrunken and shriveled with the blood sucked out completely. Immediately thereon they rushed to the grave of Ir-ma only to find it empty, except for a few drops of blood.

Blood has always held some mysterious significance and was a matter of deep concern even with the Chinese, Arabs, and Romans. In religious writings, blood is referred to in many instances, and there are various warnings that man should not drink the blood of his fellow men because of the reasoning that the soul and the spirit are linked together. Blood is life and this is the reason a vampire seeks to rejuvenate his corpse by sucking the blood from the veins of his victims till they shrivel and die.

Vampires Everywhere

Vampires are universal in that every language contains some reference to them, for they are feared not only by primitive people, but by civilized and modern persons, particularly in the Slavic countries of Europe where histories and family culture reveal cases of factual vampires.

In the 18th century it was reported in Hungary, Moravia, Silesia, and Poland, men who had been dead for months roamed about at night to drain the blood from animals and men. To prevent such further happenings, the corpses were dug up and under church ceremonies, the head was removed and the heart torn from the body to keep it from getting blood again. In some cases it was necessary only to pound a stake through the heart to prevent roamings. Numerous records relate cases where a dead body remained life-like many months after burial and was discovered only because of horrible blood-sucking attacks on the community by a maniac described as the man who had been dead for some time. When caught the demon was thrown on a fiercely burning fire to completely destroy the flesh that so depended on the blood of living victims.

Catholic Exorcism

So that you the reader will not think these beliefs and ceremonies as belonging to pagans and ignorant, primitive peoples, you should realize the fact that most religions, and even modern Catholicism recognized the existence of demons and vampire-like creatures, and at times presided over their destruction with prayer and ceremony. One of the powers to a priest is that of exorcism, or casting out the devil in human beings. Scholars believed that the appearances of the walking-dead, though unbelievable, were factual.

The Greek Church attested that vampires were persons who had been excommunicated and the Orthodox Church has definite doctrine on the subject. Leone Allaci, Doctor of Medicine, assistant to the Pope and an astute scholar, stated that "a vampire was the dead body of a man who had led a debauched life and was excommunicated, which body did not decompose after death but became possessed with a demon that wandered from the grave at night to satisfy its sanguine thirst."

Receiving little attention in our times because of the hideousness of their deeds, people, even today, are occasionally caught and confined for their crimes of vampirism, drinking the blood of their victims, driven by an uncontrollable urge and desire and vile thirst.

MOVIES FOR FUN WILL HELP HARTS RELEASE TENSION

"Friday Night Flicks" has been brought to Hartnell by popular demand from other great college campuses including San Jose State. Comedy, ranging from slapstick to cartoons, will comprise this Friday's performance at 8 o'clock in the Student Union.

"Gerald McBoing Boing," "Motor Mania," "Our Gang Comedy," and "Yukon Jake" starring cross-eyed Ben Turpin are the highlights of this first presentation.

Pictures, dress, and mood are all informal. Students may wear bermudas, slacks, sacks, almost anything and all aspiring and inspiring folk singers are invited to bring their respective instruments.

Following these "gems of the motion picture industry" a social hour will be held. Candidates for A.S.B. offices will be there to meet and talk informally with their voting public.

Admission to the gala affair will be 25 cents with student body card. This nominal admission fee entitles any member of the audience to cheer all the heroes and hiss and boo at all the villains.

Tennis Coach Unhappy Judo, Courts Don't Mix

Judo may not be for the birds, but it can frustrate a tennis coach. How so? Simple. Mr. Peavy, athletic business instructor and tennis coach, is minus his number one tennis ball buster. Bob Kusumoto participated in a judo contest and managed to break his leg. And it is hard work to play tennis in a cast. Oh, well.

"We had possibilities of a good team," said Mr. Peavy, "but we are now shorthanded, and probably won't be a big threat to the other conference teams."

The squad defeated the Gavilan Rams last Saturday, 7-0, on the Hartnell courts. Harold Ueda, John Graham, Pat Maneeratana, Gregory Lowe, and Con Agbannawag all won their singles matches, and the two doubles teams of Ueda-Lowe and Graham-Maneeratana won all of their matches. Five singles and two doubles matches are usually played.

There are only five men on the squad, and nine men could be used. Anyone interested should see Mr. Peavy, or be at the Hartnell tennis courts every afternoon at 3.

The next conference match will be against Gavilan on their courts, Saturday, March 27.

COACH'S PASSING CREATES VACANCY

A teacher to fill the vacancy left by line coach Chace Anderson's death has not been found, according to Vice President Stuart Dufour. It is difficult to find a competent teacher during the middle of a semester who is available for a job.

Mr. Dufour does not know when a replacement will be found. Mr. Anderson's classes are still under the supervision of the various Hartnell teachers who started to help out at the start of his illness.

Panthers Lose Sports Duck To Seahawks, Rams in Meet

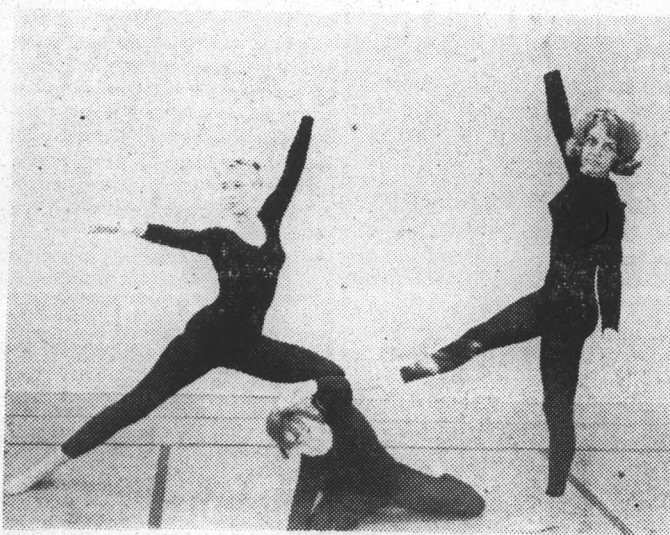

The golden sea duck eluded Hartnell's grubby little fists again Saturday, March 20, when Cabrillo pushed by with seven points to score first at the nine-college meet held at Cabrillo College.

San Francisco City College, San Jose City College, Diablo Valley College, Monterey Peninsula College, Cabrillo, West Valley College, Foothill College, and Oakland City College also participated in the events. Hartnell winners included Pat Swenson, second place honors in women's singles badminton, and Banchong, first in men's singles. Mike Keenan placed first in the diving events; other swimmers taking individual honors were Sharon Paparich, Jim Schardt, Alice White, Judy Mattson, Frank Cravens, and Gale White.

Following the competition events all the students gathered in the student union for lunch and an awards program. A group of Hartnell folk dancers presented a demonstration after which several folk singing groups and the Tremblers, a Cabrillo College dance band, entertained the students before buses began returning at 2:30.

Final top scores were: Cabrillo 37, San Francisco City College 34, and Hartnell 30.

Tracksters Set Record, Win Meet

Coach Adams' boys pulled through to easily win the Coast Conference Track and Field Relays at Hartnell, Friday, March 19. "We have a great team, and all we need is a little publicity," the track boss remonstrated.

A meet record fell to the Hartnell shot-put team, who threw for a total distance of 128 feet, 6¾ inches. The previous record, held by Hartnell, was several feet shorter.

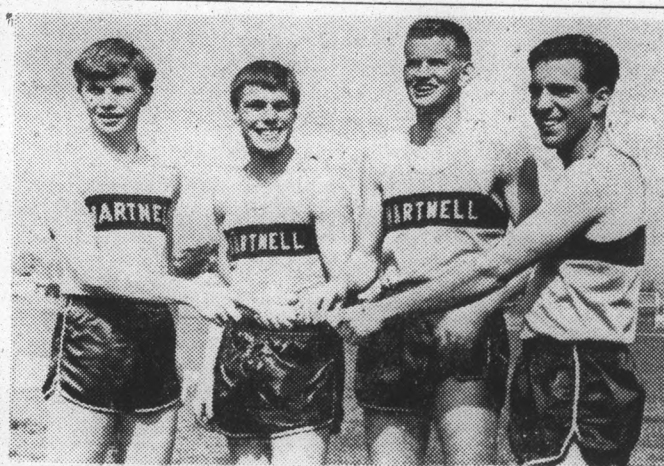

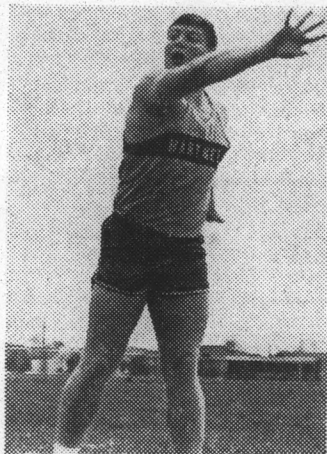

Allen Hayson, Jim McCarver, Jim Ammons and Bob Russell placed second in the Shuttle Hurdles — Vallejo grabbing first place. Jim Benson, Len Davies, Mike Gould and Ed Powers won the two mile relay, and the 880 relay team of Tom Broadhead, Jon Huss, Pete Rice, and William Shank placed third behind winning Menlo.

Cabrillo won the distance medley relay, but the Hartnell team of Steve O'Connell, Andy Pauley, Clyde Lehman and Doug Butt placed third. M.P.C. took one first place, in the 440 yard relay, while Jim Williams, John Crivello, Henry Hopkins, and Fred Lindsey placed fifth. Panther team of Len Davies, Dave Andreotti, Merlin Grubbs and Dave Guzman won the mile relay; while Rick O'Neil, Ray Cordoba, Bill Muscutt and Tom Shigo pulled in for first in the weight men's 440 relay.

The shot put record was taken by the team of Rick O'Neil, Tom Shigo and Ray Cordoba. Tom Bailey, Jim Crossland and Paul George outjumped their competitors for the high jump first place; and Dave Taylor, Jim Cox and Bob McCoy sailed high for first place in pole vaulting. Broad jumpers William Yoskowits, Dennis Dunham and Tom Gibbons placed third behind winning West Valley, but first place in the discus competition went to the strong arms of Rick O'Neil, Ray Cordoba and Paul Dickie.

The final score was: Hartnell 63, Vallejo 42, West Valley 34, Cabrillo 31, Menlo 16, M.P.C. 11 and Gavilan 1.

■ Victorious tracksters brought home the goodies for Hartnell by hard work and lots of desire. Shot-putter Rick O'Neil, left picture, was one of three men who set a new meet record. Other tracksters are, from left to right: Tom Nolte, 440 yard, Ed Powers, two mile relay team, Spencer Bailey, who ran the 440 yard dash before he was injured, and Dave Rose, 100 and 220 yard dash man. Track boys will be out again at full strength this afternoon at 3:30 on the Hartnell cinders.

Ability Is There But Pressure Takes Its Toll

Hartnell College's high-flying golf players journeyed to M.P.C. with high hopes, but came back with five points out of a possible twenty. Jon Drake shot an 80 to get four, and Al Vaccaro and Rich Walker both bagged a half point by shooting 83's. Low score was a 76, shot by Glen Stubblefield.

"They have the ability, and play very well on the Salinas Fairways, but they break under pressure," Golf Coach Arvin Smith reports. "To become a good team they have to learn to play under pressure."

The team averages are good: Al Vaccaro, 79; Rich Walker, 77; Tom Baugn, 82; Eric Christerson, 81; Jon Drake, 79; Ed McCullom, 81; Glenn Stubblefield, 80, and John Iverson, 79.

The next meet will be with Merced.

Baseball Boys Win, Get a Pat on the Back

"They're a darn good bunch of boys, who played better than I thought they would," is what Coach Jess Regli had to say about the Hartnell baseball team after defeating San Jose, 10-8, in a non-conference game, March 19.

It was a matter of sweet revenge for the Panther bat boys, as they had fallen to San Jose, 8-4, their previous time out.

The next team to meet Hartnell on the diamond will be M.P.C., April 6, here.
